

Nunavut Excavating 2007 Inc, have been in operation in Nunavut Since 2007, and currently managing 2 borrow areas out of the communities of Iqaluit and Rankin Inlet. Nunavut Excavating 2007 Inc. is planning to establish own quarry near the community of Cambridge Bay for the purpose of extraction an approximate quantity of 1200 cu.m annually. The proposed quarry is adjasant to the gravel pit being used by the Hamlet of cambridge Bay. The proposed location have been disturbed and used previously for quarrying activities. Extracted materials will be use in the Community of Cambridge Bay to build house pads, parking areas, and access roads.