

APPROVAL OF EKALUKTUTIAK HUNTERS AND TRAPPERS ORGANIZATION

Project title(s):

Initials:

1. Ecological Monitoring of Insects
2. Climate Change Impacts on Vegetation, Habitats, Breeding Densities and Population Trends of Arctic Birds around Cambridge Bay, Victoria Island, Nunavut
3. Characterization and mapping of terrestrial ecosystems in south-eastern Victoria Island and the adjacent mainland regions in Nunavut
4. Ecology of lacustrine fish communities on south-eastern Victoria Island: Greiner Lake and its Watershed
5. Arctic Freshwater Biodiversity in Cambridge Bay
6. Deployment of Environmental Instrumentation in Greiner Lake watershed, Cambridge Bay, Victoria Island, Nunavut
7. Canadian High Arctic Research Station (CHARS) camp on Greiner Lake, Cambridge Bay

✓
✓
✓
✓
✓
✓
✓

Timeline of Projects: April – October 2016

Applicants and Affiliations:

Donald S. McLennan
Senior Program Officer - Monitoring Science
Polar Knowledge Canada
1701-360 Albert St., Ottawa, ON K1R 7X7
Phone: 613-295-6135
Email: donald.mclennan@polar.gc.ca

Johann Wagner
Science Analyst
Polar Knowledge Canada
1701-360 Albert St., Ottawa, ON K1R 7X7
Phone: 613-295-8424
Email: johann.wagner@polar.gc.ca

By signing this page, the Chairperson or Manager of the affected Hunters and Trappers Organization indicates that the applicant has fully informed the HTO about the nature of the project(s) and that the HTO supports or does not support the proposed projects listed above.

EKALUKTUTIAK HTO – Cambridge Bay

X supports or does not support the above project(s)

Once complete, please return to Angulalik Pedersen
983 5464
angulalik.pedersen@polar.gc.ca