

Jericho Diamond Mine Project

- Approximately 240km SE of Kugluktuk
- Single Open Pit Mine
- Processing Facility
- Processed kimberlite containment areas
- Camp and Supporting Buildings
- Fuel Tank Farm
- Airstrip
- Roads connecting infrastructure

Site History

- July 2004 – NIRB issued Project Certificate 002 to Tahera Corporation Ltd.
- January 2005 – Project Certificate 002 transferred to Benachee Resources Inc,
- August 2010 – Shear Diamonds (Nunavut) Corp purchased Jericho
- August 2011 - NIRB transferred Project Certificate 002 to Shear
- October 2012 – Site placed in temporary closure by Shear
- January 2014 – AANDC declared site abandoned and assumed control of site
- September 2016 – NIRB screened INAC’s “Jericho Mine Site Stabilization Project”
  - Majority of work completed summer 2017
  - Small amount of work to be completed summer 2018
- NIRB Site Visit June 2018

Course kimberlite cover on processed kimberlite tailings

Fuel Tanks – Cleaned and Emptied, Contaminated soil – liner, berm, and capped

Breach of Divider Dyke A and West Dam to allow for natural water flow

Removal of C1 Diversion Ditch

Breach of Pit Wall to re-route water into Open Pit

Outflow from pit lake into Carat Lake

