Re: NIRB Response to Access to Information Request

Dear Mr. Savage:

On October 6, 2013 the Nunavut Impact Review Board (NIRB or Board) received correspondence from your directorate requesting that the NIRB review enclosed information and advise whether it had been provided to Aboriginal Affairs and Northern Development Canada (AANDC) in confidence, in support of the Government of Canada's efforts to respond to a request made under the Access to Information Act for: "All correspondence to or from Minister Valcourt containing the word "Kiggavik" and all briefing notes containing the word "Kiggavik". Please exclude media monitoring. Date range is May 10, 2015 to present."

The following documents were provided to the NIRB for review:

1. NIRB Hearing Report for the Kiggavik Uranium Mine, NIRB File No. 09MN003 (issued May 8, 2015)
2. Covering letter for NIRB Hearing Report for the Kiggavik Uranium Mine, NIRB File No. 09MN003 (issued May 8, 2015)
3. Email message accompanying Covering letter and NIRB Hearing Report for the Kiggavik Uranium Mine, NIRB File No. 09MN003 (issued May 8, 2015)

I note that the documents provided to the NIRB for review are currently available through our online public registry and as such, are not considered confidential. The NIRB, therefore, has no objection to their disclosure by AANDC in response to this request.

Sincerely,

Ryan Barry
Executive Director
Nunavut Impact Review Board
