- We are one people and we work together to protect our land and water. We are a community of people from different backgrounds and cultures who come together to support each other and our environment. We believe in working together to find solutions to challenges we face as a community.
- We are a small community located in the Arctic region of Canada, specifically in the Northwest Territories. We have a population of approximately 1,500 people, mostly Inuit. Our economy is based on hunting, fishing, trapping, and tourism. We are committed to preserving our way of life and our culture for future generations.
