The Socio-Economic Monitoring Committee aims to track and assess the impacts and benefits of mining on Nunavut communities through a multi-stakeholder input process.

Who: Agnico Eagle Mines, Kivalliq Hamlets, Government of Nunavut, Crown-Indigenous Relations and Northern Affairs Canada & more.

What: Community round table discussions, presentations by Agnico Eagle & other stakeholders, group activity & more.

Why: Socio-Economic Monitoring is a requirement under Agnico Eagle's Project Certificate. The SEMC meetings occur once a year for each region.

Your Role: People are free to participate in discussions or bring written material to share stories, questions, and concerns regarding the impacts of mining.
