

The logo features the acronym "NIRB" in large, bold, black letters. Above it, the name "NUNAVUT IMPACT EVALUATION BOARD" is written in smaller, black, sans-serif capital letters. Below "NIRB", the name "NUNAVUMI AVATILIKIYIN KATIMAYIN" is written in Inuktitut syllabics. A red maple leaf is positioned to the left of the word "IMPACT". The entire logo is set against a light green background that includes a faint map of Nunavut.

Travel End Date:

The logo features a stylized green map of Nunavut in the background. Overlaid on the map is the Inuktitut name "ᓄᓇᕐᑦ ᐃᓈᓂᓕᓴᓴᓅᓪᓰ ᓅᓯᓴᓴᓱᓕ" in black syllabics, which translates to "Government of Nunavut". Below this, there is a red Canadian maple leaf. At the bottom, the acronym "NIRB" is written in large, bold, black letters. Underneath each letter is its English translation: "UNAVUT" under N, "IMPACT" under I, "EVIEW" under R, and "OARI" under B. Finally, at the very bottom, the full name "NUNAVUMI AVATILIKIYIN KATIMAYIN" is written in black capital letters.

Name of commercial establishment or vendor involved in the hospitality activity: